UGANDA AIRLINES (UR)

As Uganda Airlines celebrates its fifth anniversary, there has been a spate of fleet and route expansion announcements. Uganda Airlines' international network will grow to 16 destinations, with flights to Abuja, Harare, and Lusaka starting this month. The airline has also added more capacity to/from Jo'burg (JNB) with an Airbus A320 on the route 4x per week. For groups, FIT customers, and incentive winners, Uganda offers incredible wildlife and nature experiences, gorilla encounters, and hidden adventures at the source of the great Nile River.

WE ARE AIRLINEPROS!

Blending strategic planning and team bonding, the recent AirlinePros International Board of Directors' meeting was followed by a get-together at the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum in New York.

The meeting was attended by founders Achma Asokan and James Foster, along with non-executive board members Thomas Windmuller and William Boulter, and executive board members, Xavier Masule, Anil Mathew Asokan, Anita Marie Lukhele, Shreyas Nanavati, and Vinu Baby.

The group covered several key areas of business, including performance management, future growth strategies, new product development and many innovative project proposals. AirlinePros' vision 'to be the leading network of airline professionals' was reiterated, which inspires us to focus on the three pillars of trust, continuous innovation, and quality performance.

"AirlinePros is proud of its robust growth path driven by market expansions, client performances, and cost-effective operations. I believe that AirlinePros is ready to move to the next level of growth with the succession of Shreyas Nanavati into the role of CEO of AirlinePros International Inc., the operating entity supported by Vinu Baby, the CEO of AirlinePros Business Support Services Center, and Xavier Masule, the Group CFO of the holding company, AirlinePros Incorporated," said Achma Asokan, Group CEO.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Happy Birthday, Uganda Airlines!

Uganda Airlines CEO Visits Flight Centre

Uganda Airlines is making significant investments to enhance its Johannesburg route, increasing seat capacity and improving services for travellers. Pictured at the Flight Centre offices, Karin Matodes (far left), the Chief Commercial Officer of AirlinePros South Africa, welcomed Uganda Airlines' CEO, Jenifer Bamuturaki (second from right) and Monica Rubombora, Country Manager Uganda Airlines South Africa. The visit underscores the airline's commitment to strengthening its presence in SA and strengthening its trade partnerships.

Sell Uganda with confidence!

- You've heard of the Big Five; however, Uganda boasts its own Big Seven, with an estimated 1,063 Mountain Gorillas and 5,000 chimpanzees living in its forests and reserves. Uganda's natural assets are also staggering, with at least 2,803 mountain ranges, eight major rivers, 14 waterfalls, 165 lakes, 202 central forest reserves, and 736 cultures across the country.
