LAO AIRLINES (QV)

Lao Airlines is the national carrier of the Lao People's Democratic Republic, connecting travelers to jungle, beach, adventure, and food experiences across Asia. Operating from its main hub at Wattay International Airport in Vientiane, the capital of Laos, a fleet of ATRs and Airbus A320s ensure fast and comfortable travel to cities like Bangkok, Hanoi, Kunming, and Seoul, as well as popular domestic destinations such as Pakse, an important gateway for leisure trips in beautiful Laos.

AGENT'S CORNER

Village bungalows along the Nam Song River in Vang Vieng, which is about 1h20 from Vientiane by train

- Laos is a landlocked country in Southeast Asia, which makes Lao Airlines' air transport services and future network expansion critical for trade and tourism.
- Laos is known for its mountainous terrain, relaxed atmosphere, Buddhist temples, eco-tourism products, outdoor activities, and Mekong River adventures. The destination attracts far fewer visitors annually than Thailand and Vietnam. Trip planners also consider Laos to be more budget-friendly!
- According to the Ministry of Information, Culture, and Tourism of Laos, the country received approximately 4.5 million international visitors in 2019. Most visitors were from the region and Western Countries.
