LAM MOZAMBIQUE AIRLINES (TM)

LAM Mozambique Airlines (Linhas Aéreas de Moçambique) is not only one of the longest-running airlines in Africa, it is also the flag carrier of Mozambique. With deep Portuguese roots, LAM Mozambique Airlines was started by the country's colonial government in 1936 and renamed in 1980 following reorganization. Its main hub remains the Maputo International Airport, from where it connects travelers to a growing number of domestic, regional, and inter-continental destinations.
